Norfolk Society.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 14.—A notable society event of the season was the marriage on Wednesday evening of Miss Eugenia Murdaugh Bain and Dr. Frank Cleveland Cook, U. S. N. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bain, in Bute Street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Carl E. Grammer, of Christ Church. Lieutenant Francis Sawyer, U. S. N., acted as best man and the maid of honor was Miss Kathleen Bain, sister of the bride. The bride was beautifully dressed in white satin and duchess lace and was given away by her father. The only maid of honor was attired in white tulle and carried a bouquet of bride roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held and was attended by a large number of friends of Dr. and Mrs. Cook, there being present several United States Army and Naval officers.

Dr. Spillman entertained a few of his friends at a delightful oyster feast on Tuesday at the Chesapeake Club. Those enjoying Dr. Spillman's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Chapman Little, Mrs. Henry Little, Mrs. Wm. Little, Mrs. C. A. Woodward, Mrs. Randolph Hixson, Mrs. C. H. Bullen, and Mrs. H. H. Smith, of Chesapeake, and Mrs. J. R. Hubard, of Norfolk.

Mrs. J. Y. Leigh, Mrs. J. R. Hubard, Miss Sue Bagnall, Miss Fannie Sams, Miss Winter Green, Miss Lita Sams, and Mrs. Charles Elliott attended the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in Charleston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Royster gave an elegant reception at their home in Ghent on Thursday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Fanny Royster.

The house was ablaze with light and beauty and exquisite flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Royster and Miss Royster were assisted in receiving by Miss Baker, of Tarboro, N. C.; Miss Wetherill, of Chester, Pa.; and Miss Scott, of North Carolina.

Dr. and Mrs. Junius Lynch, Miss Nina Johns, Miss Ruth Ferber, Messrs. Elliott Heath, T. W. Shelton, C. J. Collins, Stewart Johns, Hugh Kurr, D. L. Granger, Richard Crabbe, Edward Brockenbrough and Dr. B. R. Kennon attended the Baird-Michaels wedding in Richmond last week.

Mrs. Herbert Leigh, of Petersburg, is the guest of Mrs. W. H. T. Loyall in York Street.

Mrs. Ashton Ramsey, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. R. A. Doble in Bute Street.

Miss Maud Battle, of North Carolina, is the guest of Miss Mable Wing in Ghent.

Mr. John Howe, formerly of Norfolk, and now of Richmond, spent Sunday in Norfolk.

Mrs. James McGraw has returned from a visit to friends in New York.

Mrs. H. B. Hodgson and Miss Lillian Hodgson left last week for New York to attend the initial performance of Miss Maud Adams in "The Pretty Sister of Jose."

in which Miss Hodgson will make her first appearance on the stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. Harry Myers in Ghent. Mrs. Hugo Nelson Page is the guest of Mrs. T. B. Lyons in Charlottesville, Va.

Miss Evelyn Talbot, of Rockville, Md., is the guest of Miss Louise Jones in York Street.

Mrs. Hunt Chipley, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. T. Walker, left on Saturday for her home in Atlanta.

Miss Ellen Glasgow, who has been the guest of Mrs. Westmore Wilcox, has returned to her home in Richmond.

SALEM'S SOCIAL CIRCLE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALEM, VA., Nov. 14.—The second gathering of the Bachelor Maids' Euchre Club was held several afternoons since, when the club was entertained by Miss Mary Killian, at the residence of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Killian, on Pennsylvania Avenue. The first prize, a Dresden plate, was won by Miss Bessie Galloway, and the trophy, a hand-painted chocolate pot, went to Miss Eula Bowman. At the fifth table the prize, a picture, was awarded to Dr. Margaret Painter. Those present were Misses Bessie Galloway, Eva Mann, Mamie Moon, Emma Ayres, Glennie Martin, Lucy Biers, Mabel Bowman, Eula Bowman, Elizabeth Painter, Lella and Alda Killian, Dr. Margaret Painter, Mrs. C. W. Waddy, of Buena Vista, Va.; Mrs. Andrew Roberts, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. R. Galloway, and Mrs. C. R. Roberts, of Salem.

The last meeting of the Literary Club was held at the residence of Dr. J. E. Armstrong, on College Avenue. The programme for the evening was a personally conducted tour abroad. Dr. F. V. N. Palmer gave the voyage from New York to Liverpool. Dr. Armstrong described Boulogne and the country between that city and Paris, and contrasted Paris, London and Amsterdam. Miss Armstrong read a paper on Ponta Delgada.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Episcopal Church gave a reception several nights ago at the residence of Mrs. James Chalmers, on High Street. Two hundred and fifty invitations had been sent out, and the attendance was large. Mrs. Chalmers, assisted by Mrs. J. C. Langhorne, Mrs. F. H. Chalmers and Mrs. W. H. Tinsley, received the guests. The affair was "a free will offering," and a considerable sum was realized.

The members of the Social Club were delightedly entertained Thursday evening from 8:30 until 12 o'clock by Miss Mary Harman, one of Salem's most attractive and popular young ladies, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Harman, on Broad Street.

The guests were received by the charming young hostess, dressed in white China silk, assisted by her mother, who wore gray crepe de chine, with white lace applique. Progressive four-hand euchre was played in the drawing rooms, there being six tables. The score cards were the faintest imaginable, and the score was kept by the hostess.

The ladies' first prize was won by Miss Katharine Evans. It was a silver thimble. The consolation, a silver hat pin, went to Miss Letha Chandler. Mr. Horace Fox won the gentlemen's first prize, a silver match box; the trophy, a China "Sunny Jim," being awarded to Mr. A. H. Solder.

A delicious light supper was served, followed by ice cream and macaroons, coffee and bonbons. Those present were Misses Claudine Ferguson, Jane Johnston, Katharine Evans, Mabel Bowman, Bessie Henderson, Martha Henderson, Annie Langhorne, Lathia Chandler, Annie Armstrong, Mozart Horace Fox, Sheldon Bowman, Al. Bowman, Robert Hubard, H. P. Mason, A. H. Solder, Marvin Altizer, J. P. Jones, George Logan, A. Ward, William Harland, C. McCune, Dr. G. E. Koontz, Mr. and Mrs. F. Harman, Mrs. J. H. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Allemon, and Mrs. C. E. Vawter, of Blacksburg, Va.

The annual meeting of the Masonic Home Auxiliary will be held at the home Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The officers will be elected for the ensuing year at this meeting.

A silver tea was given by the Ladies' Guild of Cavalry Baptist Church, Friday evening last, in the home of Mrs. E. H. Pemberton, on West Marshall Street. Music was furnished by the West-End Angels and a neat sum was realized.

A charming social happening of last week was the studio tea given by Miss Emma Moorehead Whitfield, at No. 200 East Grace Street.

Pretty decorations were in pink and white. Miss Whitfield, who spent the summer near Paris, studying art with Colin, had many examples of her work in oil, water color, china and tapestry in her studio. Guests who called had a most agreeable half-hour, and received a delightful impression of studio life from the gracious reception of their young hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hulcher have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Agnes Mary, to Mr. Frank Herman Overman, on Wednesday morning, November 25th, at 1 o'clock, in St. Mary's Catholic Church.

A whist tournament will be given by the Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution at the Woman's Club, Wednesday evening, November 18th, at 8 o'clock.

The tournament will be under the able direction of Mrs. Isaiah White, and will be given for the Virginia building at the St. Louis Exposition. The Richmond Daughters in raising this fund are uniting their efforts in a work undertaken by all the other chapters in the State. A fee of fifty cents admission is required at the door. Choice of partners before sitting down to the tables is obligatory for players.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard A. Cheney, of Chicago, who recently purchased the historic old estate, "Warner Hall," in Gloucester county, Va., spent part of last week there making arrangements to rebuild the house. They are now at the Jefferson for a day or two on their way back to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald De'Alpine, of Denver, Col., who were called to New York recently on account of the sudden death of Mrs. De'Alpine's brother, Mr. Leland Pembroke Cleft, will be in Richmond for a few days before returning home.

NEW KENT COURT.

Negro Sentenced One Year for Shooting on Train.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROXBURY, VA., Nov. 14.—Judge Isaac H. Christian held court Thursday at New Kent C. H., though he was very feeble and needed support wherever he went.

George Grimes (colored) was tried for shooting on an excursion train, September 28th. The shot intended for a negro man missed him and struck a negro woman, passing through her wrist. The accused had employed a negro lawyer of Newport News, to defend him. He had associated with him the well-known criminal lawyer, of Newport News, F. S. Collier. After being out thirty minutes, the jury brought in their verdict, giving
